

Student exchange Tongji University Law School, Shanghai beginning of planned stay in Shanghai autumn 2027

Since 2019/2020 the Faculty of Law of Heidelberg University has been able to nominate several students for a stay of one semester or one year within the framework of a student exchange with the Law School of Tongji-University in Shanghai, People's Republic of China, for non degree studies. Tuition fees are not be charged in Shanghai. You find information on possibilities of studying in Shanghai via this URL.: <http://study.tongji.edu.cn/> .

Please send your applications in German or English with documents including:

- CV,
- letter of motivation,
- if applicable: certificate about successful intermediate examination,
- current transcript of records,
- if possible 2 recommendations, at least 1 recommendation by a professor (signed original).

The recommendation can be sent directly by the professor to the office of the dean or placed in a closed and sealed envelope and submitted by the applicant with the other documents. We are interested in what you can achieve and whether on the basis of everything known so far the expectation is well founded that the stay will follow a productive course and be successful. We understand this in a comprehensive way. Both academic skills in law and all other aspects are interesting for us. If the professor writing the recommendation has other things to report that might be relevant for the success of the stay, information may be interesting for the selection procedure. There is no form sheet;

- certificates about language skills and
- certificate about your secondary school results (German Abiturzeugnis, Austrian or Swiss Matura, A-levels certificate, High School diploma, baccalauréat etc.)
